Kenny Washington Quartet
Friday, September 30

8:00 p.m.

Dubbed "the Superman of the Bay Area jazz scene" by the San Francisco Chronicle, Kenny Washington is a jazz virtuoso who thrills audiences with his soulful interpretations, seemingly limitless range, and rapid-fire scatting. Ravi Coltrane has declared Kenny his favorite male vocalist and Mark Murphy said in a Jazz Times interview that Kenny was the only contemporary male vocalist carrying on the tradition.

Adam Shulma Quintet
Strays: The Music of Bill Strayhorn
Friday, October 14

8:00 p.m.

Patrick Wolff—tenor saxophone; Erik Jekabson—trumpet; Smith Dobson V—drums; John Wiitala—bass; Adam Shulman—piano

The Adam Shulman Quintet seeks to convey the incredible intellect and heart of a genius of 20th century music, Billy Strayhorn. The format is a small ensemble that enables each member ample opportunity to explore Strayhorn's rich harmony in improvisation. The night's repertoire will include well- and lesser-known Billy Strayhorn songs. www.AdamShulman.com
